

Braille, anyone?

The Alberta Society for the Visually Impaired – Edmonton District is sponsoring a "Mastering Literary Braille" course for parents, educational assistants and professionals...

Although classroom instruction is a preferred method, this course is also available via distance correspondence. Weekly videoconference will also be an option available through the facilities at the Vision Resource Centre – North in Edmonton (contact Edna if wishing to connect via videoconference).

For more information contact one of the following:

info@asviedmonton.org

or

Edna McLafferty @ 780-472-4454

or

Inez Kreamer @ 780-662-3608

inezkreamer@hughes.net

Dates: Thursdays – starting October 14th, 2010; ending April 2011

Time: 4:30 pm - 6:00 pm

Location: Room 18 (videoconference suite), Newton School*
5523-122 Avenue NW, Edmonton

* course also available via videoconference

Costs: manual is $75, course requires a $100 deposit (refundable at completion of course with an 80% average or higher); make cheques payable to ASVI-Edmonton